

Jingellic & District Pastoral, Agricultural & Horticultural Society Inc. Newsletter #7 Spring 2017

Welcome to the Spring Newsletter

Official opening of new facility and jamming@jingellic

The official opening and inaugural Jamming@jingellic was held on the coldest day in August with over 240 attendees. Mr Greg Aplin (MP Albury) officially opened the Jingellic Emergency Welfare Centre/Pavilion. The crowds were keen to view the new facility, inspect the NSW SES Flood Emergency Community Cache, enjoy a variety of food and wine and peruse the amazing collection of art and sculpture which was produced by talented local artists.

SES Cache

An SES Flood Emergency Cache has been placed on the grounds. Keys for the Cache are available at the Bridge Hotel and Jingellic Store.

Annual General Meeting

The AGM was held in October with 19 attendees. Reports were provided by the Acting President, ASB & Associates (Auditors) and Treasurer highlighting the activities and financial position of the organisation during the year. Committee roles were confirmed for 2017/2018:

Sub Committees

User Group Committee

Members from Jingellic Pony Club, Jingellic Cricket Club, Jingellic Rural Fire Service and JDAPH met in October to plan activities and programs for the 2017/18 summer and discuss user fees. It was agreed to hold one major event as a joint fundraiser to contribute funds for the ongoing costs of the facilities and grounds. This year it will be a New Year's Eve Party.

Special Events Committee

The Special Events Committee successfully organised the official opening and are busy planning a grand New Year's Eve Party. Other events include catering for a local post wedding brunch and the equitation event. Follow the Jingellic Show FaceBook page for event information and updates!

Beth Reynolds Working Equitation Event 25/11/17

JDPAH is hosting a 2 day introductory clinic to Working Equitation – An event where horse and rider are upskilled and confidence enhanced by exploring four components of equestrian competition: classical dressage, traditional horsemanship, obstacles and Cattle work.
